Here's another student whose work continues to grow, shift, and transform. I'm so proud of Christine Galavanting Gallant who had no fear in moving forward with writing, stretching, sharing, to where she's now published her first book, of POETRY! I got to see when the poetry spark ignited, and have witnessed over many months how Christine continued to show up, try, grapple, write, express, and explore. The fact that she's now got the CONFIDENCE and DESIRE to share her poetry as she continues to grow is my WHY! <3 Congratulations Christine! <https://cggallant.com>
